MEMORANDUM OF POINTS AND AUTHORITIES

On August 20, 2012, this court issued an Amended Judgment (CR #51) wherein Mr. Jeffrey Abraham was sentenced to 37 months in the custody of the Bureau of Prisons, among other sanctions. This Court ordered that Mr. Abraham self-surrender by 12:00 noon on Monday, October 7, 2013.

Mr. Abraham informed the undersigned, that as of October 2, 2013, he had not received a formal designation to a facility to which he could self-surrender, as was also ordered by the Court (CR #50). Counsel contacted the local office of the U.S. Marshal, and their records also reflect that there is no formal designation as yet for Mr. Abraham. Mr. Abraham's designation should entail no special consideration other than he would likely be considered a very low-level drug offender. Therefore, the delay in designation is most like the result of a combination of factors such as high volume and overcrowding at most facilities.

Neither the Government nor Pre-trial Services has any opposition. Mr. Abraham has continued to remain compliant post-sentencing.

CONCLUSION

Mr. Abraham hereby requests the court to extend his self surrender date from October 7, 2013 to a date in the future but no sooner than fourteen (14) days.

DATED this 3rd day of October, 2013.

Respectfully submitted,
